

“Springing into Summer” Workshop

November 2010 : Rarangi Beach

Sally Mason FPSNZ : Photographer/Photography Tutor

By November, the wet winter will be far behind us – just a damp memory. Spring will have sprung, the leaves will be green and lush, the grasses will be fresh and supple, the wild flowers will be laughing, and the sun will have an extra sparkle. Join us for a celebration of the seasons, where we and our cameras will discover the playfulness and joy of renewal. Bring your sense of exploration, your sense of humour, and your open mind.....

We will explore our responses to what we see, learn more about ourselves, and how using all of our senses “round” our appreciation of the places and situations in which we find ourselves. Then we can make more meaningful and very personal images. You will be given challenges to stretch your imagination and learning. The emphasis will be on using “in camera” techniques... so you can photograph what you feel WHEN you are feeling it. Field trips around the area will be an integral of the workshop. On Day 5 all students will work towards producing an album, using prints of images taken throughout the workshop. You will create a very individual portrayal of your time at the beach.
